Dear Brant:

Of course, I would recommend you to anyone who wants to save a significant amount of money, who wants to have a pleasant and humorous individual to work with, and who wants someone dependable who gets the job done on time. Thank you so much for finding the particular loan for me that saved me all those closing costs and fees. Thank you for being personally available and for answering my many detailed questions with patience and good humor. I have already referred a number of close friends to you.

Congratulations on your new baby,

ANNE M. HUARTE
